

Starting a business selling computer accessories can be a great idea, especially with the growing demand for tech products. Here are some accessory ideas you might consider:

1. Ergonomic Keyboards and Mice: With more people working from home, ergonomic options are increasingly popular.
2. Laptop Stands: Adjustable stands for better posture and airflow are in demand.
3. Cable Management Solutions: Organizers, sleeves, and clips to keep cables tidy.
4. Webcams and Microphones: High-quality options for remote meetings and streaming.
5. External SSDs: Portable storage solutions are always needed for backups and extra space.
6. Screen Protectors and Privacy Filters: Useful for both laptops and monitors.
7. Gaming Accessories: Items like gaming mice, keyboards, and mouse pads tailored for gamers.
8. Docking Stations: Multi-port hubs for connecting various devices to laptops.
9. Blue Light Blocking Glasses: To reduce eye strain from screens.
10. Power Banks and Chargers: Essential for keeping devices powered on the go.
11. Headsets and Earbuds: Both wired and wireless options for calls and entertainment.
12. Microfiber Cleaning Cloths: For maintaining screens and devices.
13. Customizable Keycaps: For mechanical keyboards, appealing to enthusiasts.
14. PC Building Kits: For hobbyists looking to build their own systems.